

PRESS RELEASE

Contact: Grace Berardo
Director of Marketing
E-mail: appalachiasws@gmail.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 29, 2022

APPALACHIA: A SOUTHEASTERN WIND SYMPHONY Presents LOOKING BACK, MOVING FORWARD

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR LOGAN CAMPBELL Leads APPALACHIA in FIRST CONCERT of their FIFTH SEASON

KNOXVILLE, TN - August 29, 2022 - Appalachia: A Southeastern Wind Symphony kicks off their fifth season with “Looking Back, Moving Forward.” Featuring works old and new performed by collegiate musicians and young professionals from across the southeast, the concert will be held September 3, 7:00 PM at Knoxville Catholic High School.

Musical selections include an arrangement of the traditional hymn, “Be Thou My Vision” by David Gillingham, “La Procession du Rocio,” by the 20th century Spanish composer, Joaquin Turina, and the pieces “A Mother of a Revolution” and “Come Sunday” by contemporary American composer, Omar Thomas. The concert will also include the premier of “Looking Back, Moving Forward” by Maryville College alumnus, Chris Blankenship.

Artistic Director, and graduate of The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Logan Campbell, will lead the ensemble of students from colleges across the southeast in a concert about faith and hope for the future.

“Looking Back, Moving Forward” will be held at Knoxville Catholic High School in their auditorium. Concert will be at 7:00 PM, doors open at 6:30 PM. Tickets are available at appalachiasws.squarespace.com for $10 per person. Tickets will also be available at the door - cash or check only.

“Looking Back, Moving Forward”
September 3, 7:00 PM
Knoxville Catholic High School 9245 Fox Lonas Drive NW, Knoxville, TN 37923
Tickets $10 per person.

About Appalachia: Appalachia: A Southeastern Wind Symphony is an intercollegiate wind ensemble that strives to offer the Appalachian region of our nation quality music through performances that highlight the works of Southeastern composers, while also creating networking opportunities for young musicians from regional universities. More information can be found at <https://appalachiasws.squarespace.com>

Contact: Grace Berardo
Director of Marketing
E-mail: appalachiasws@gmail.com

This project was funded under a grant contract with the State of Tennessee

